

LINDA LILLIE ROSSON, PRINCIPAL,
INSIGHT SCHOOL OF CALIFORNIA - LOS ANGELES

Serving most recently as director of education for Maric College, a division of Kaplan Higher Education, Linda Rosson brings with her more than thirty years of California experience in education and leadership in the private sector. As the director of education for Kaplan Linda was instrumental in dramatically improving student retention through her "Groups of 5" concept which was rolled out to all Kaplan institutes nationwide. Outside of her role as principal for Insight School of California – Los Angeles, Rosson reaches out to youth through her affiliation with Tools for Peace, a non denominational intercultural organization that helps youth and adults find peace within themselves through learning to be mindful of their actions. Linda also spent eight years with a teen parenting program, focusing on dropout recovery and prevention in the teen parent population. Linda holds a BA in Education from Arizona State University and a Master's in Educational Administration from California State University at San Bernardino.
